8 Pourroy Hall.
7 April, 1914.

Dear Mother:

This is where we are living at present. We are not quite decided whether we will stay or not. 73 new C. H. people are in Pom. so you can imagine what a howling mob it is with the number suddenly doubled. Esther wants us to come to Crofton, but I fear we shd. it. Haven't seen my trunk yet. Dorothea + I have a room together which seems great. We are selling legends to-morrow like mad.

The new building is nearly done, and is a sight. Saw Miss Pendleton a minute and she looked well. Janet D. was on my train this morning (we left S. at 11 p.m.)
& she appreciates your note so much -

Uell & Julia are here. (Pou.). The weather is just as <sup>the day of</sup> ~~before~~ the fire - mist & rain. So glad I have a raincoat.

I'm sorry I couldn't send this sooner
but I've been simply rushing.

Lots of love,
Mary.
